

Wellbeing in Education Resilience for Children Year 8+

All of This is for You

Life can be a bit overwhelming sometimes, but Ruby's witty, compassionate, beautifully observed drawings never fail to bring a smile of recognition, while her practical words of advice remind us how lucky we are to be here.

Book of No Worries

This essential guide covers a multitude of worries and anxieties that a young person may face while growing up. Children over 10 often have to deal with a bigger school, increased pressure to study while making and maintaining friendships.

Diary of a Dyslexic School Kid

Experience day-to-day life for a dyslexic kid, including school life, bullying and coping with tests and homework, in this frank and funny diary. This is a positive, yet honest look at the difficulties of being dyslexic

Jane, the Fox and Me

An emotionally truthful and visually stunning graphic novel about solace and redemption.

Lohland

Thirteen-year-old Kaie does fine at school and takes a lot of responsibility at home despite his parents' fights and his brother and sister's tantrums - until the school counsellor decides that he, too, has a personality disorder.

Louis Undercover

A visually stunning, thoughtful and thought-provoking graphic novel about family separation, love and bravery. A true-to-life and hopeful portrayal of a complicated, but loving family, and how a wise, sensitive and brave boy still manages to find his own way forward.

Rest of us Just Live Here

Patrick Ness's bold and irreverent novel powerfully asks what if you weren't the Chosen One? The one who's supposed to fight the zombies, or the soul-eating ghosts, or whatever this new thing is.

Skylark's War

Skylarks' War is a beautiful story following the loves and losses of a family growing up against the harsh backdrop of World War 1, from the award-winning Hilary McKay.

University Bookshop Canterbury
