

Wellbeing in Education Resilience for Children up to Year 7

At the End of Holyrood Lane

At the End of Holyrood Lane provides a sensitive glimpse into one aspect of domestic violence and how it can affect young lives.

Be Brave!

Be Brave! is an interactive self-care activity book for children aged 7+ to colour and doodle their way to feeling calm, safe and in control of their fears.

Big Little Book of Resilience

About developing flexibility, acceptance and self-compassion when those plans go awry. The reader is guided to an understanding of how resilience plays a key role in wellbeing.

My Many Coloured Days

Maybe on some days you feel sort of brown, like a bear; you feel slow and low, low down. But then comes a yellow day and wheeeeeeeee! you feel like a busy, buzzy bee. Dr. Seuss takes us on a journey through many different moods in this vibrant book.

Tree: A Gentle Story of Love and Loss

Children come across loss in their life, whether it's the loss experienced when a family changes, or when they lose a pet, change friendships, or a loved one dies. They need to know how to deal with it

War That Saved My Life

Nine-year-old Ada has never left her one-room flat. Her mother is too humiliated by Ada's twisted foot to let her outside. When her little brother Jamie is shipped out of London to escape the war, Ada sneaks out to join him

Whakarongo ki o Tupuna: Listen to your Ancestors

Following the life of a teacher, it shows tamariki how to emulate their ancestors in being strong, generous, bold and compassionate as they follow the challenges and phases of life.

Wolf Wilder

When the murderous hostility of the Russian Army threatens her very existence, Feo is left with no option but to go on the run. What follows is a story of revolution and adventure, about standing up for the things you love and fighting back.
